

Note: The ESP32 requires a special reset condition in order to enter programming mode, this is accomplished through the RTS and DTR pins of the FT231XS along with the added transistors. In the event that the controller isn't programming hold the IO0 button then press the EN button, continue holding IO0 until programming is complete

